I believe in you, you believe in me
And we, take our chance today, I don't want to stray, far from your side
We'll do our part to say, hello, take the time to smile, and I know
You are always there, each breath we take is music we make

I'll cry with you, I'll build a mountain for two Takes no time to see, you belong to me, and I belong to you

Forever's not as long as we'd like, we'll take the time to feel and we might Dance across the sea, taste the air that's free, find what it means
Every time I see your face, I see a chance to take my place
The one who makes you whole, makes you lose control, touches your soul

I'll cry with you, I'll build a mountain for two
Everyone can see you belong with me, and I belong with you

I'll cry with you, we'll build a mountain for two
I'll take the chance to say, what we only pray might come true

I believe in you, you believe in me
I believe in you
